

COMPANY OF MILITARY HISTORIANS 2016 Annual Meeting

Thursday, 14 April – Sunday, 17 April 2016

Hilton Washington Dulles Airport Hotel
Dulles, Virginia

We have a packed meeting with two and a half days of speakers and field trips planned. The Thursday evening Reception is planned for the National Rifle Association Museum.

Our host hotel is a first class facility, with plenty of space for exhibits and sales tables. In addition, it has access to the Silver Line train into Washington, for those who wish to see the city.

Coming to Fort Belvoir, Virginia, a prominent military post a short drive from the heart of Washington, D.C., the 41-acre campus of the National Museum of the United States Army. The Museum will be the only institution of its kind to address Army history from a national perspective. Development of NMUSA exhibits and interactive experiences, will be housed in a 175,000-square foot main gallery is complete, it will house more than 15,000 artifacts dating from Colonial times to the present day and welcome an estimated one million visitors per year.

MEALS: The reception on Thursday and a breakfast and lunch on both Friday and Saturday will be provided as part of the registration. The formal dinner and reception beforehand on Saturday will be at the Hotel.

The Host team looks forward to having you all come to a great meeting!

FIELD TRIPS: We will visit the home of our first President and Commander in Chief George Washington, Mount Vernon. It has a brand new Visitor's Center and Museum, displaying many artifacts relating to Washington that have been in storage and unseen for years. We will also be able to visit the house and grounds. In addition we will get a behind-the-scenes tour of the storage facility for the new National Museum of the United States Army at Ft. Belvoir. A number of special artifacts from the growing collection will be pulled and available for our viewing. In addition we have a great optional field trip planned for Sunday.
