April 22, 2012

At the Company of Military Historians Annual Meeting at Gettysburg, PA on April 20, 2013, the Company announced the Fellows Class of 2012. A member may be named a Fellow of the Company of Military Historians for outstanding accomplishments in a variety of areas. This honor is reserved for those who have demonstrated noteworthy scholarship and service, both within the Company and in the field of military history in general.

Will Gorenfeld of Novato, California, was honored with a Fellowship for:

- For his service to the Southwest Chapter of the Company;
- For his service in conducting annual meetings of the Company;
- For his active recruitment of new Company Members;
- For the many articles which he has contributed to the Journal of the Company;
- For his contributions in sharing his knowledge and expertise regarding United States Dragoons in public forums;
- For his scholarship in preparing two books for publication:

His actions both within and outside of the Company of Military Historians and his willingness to share his knowledge and time with others reflects great credit upon Will Gorenfeld and the Company of Military Historians. Accordingly the Board of Governors recognizes Will Gorenfeld as a Fellow.
