April 22, 2012

At the Company of Military Historians Annual Meeting at Baltimore, MD on April 21, 2012, Richard Ellis and Michelle Figliomeni, Ph.D. were recognized for their contributions to the Company with Commendation Awards.

The Commendation Award recognizes outstanding service to the Company. A Commendation may be awarded for acts of service that bring distinction to the Company or to a chapter or which improve services to members. The member's work may have been a onetime contribution or continuing service over a period of time in one or more areas.

Richard Ellis – For his contributions to the CMH Forum by providing accurate and timely answers to questions posted there.

Michelle Figliomeni – For her outstanding contributions to CMH, serving as Secretary to the West Point Chapter for fourteen consecutive years (1995-2008) and as both a Governor and Secretary to the Board of Governors.

The Company of Military Historians started in 1949 to study the history and material culture of military forces which served in the Americas. The Company publishes the journal Military Collector and Historian and a series of detailed Military Uniforms in America plates. Membership is open to adults of eighteen years and over who have demonstrated a keen interest in some phase of military history. The main qualification is a strong desire to share one's knowledge and expertise. The Company is controlled and managed by a Board of Governors of nine members, elected by the entire membership. The Company is recognized as a not-for-profit organization.
