Company of Military Historians
Press Release

April 20, 2013

At the Company of Military Historians Annual Meeting at Gettysburg, PA on April 20, 2013, Jeff Goodson and John Thillmann were recognized for their contributions to the Company with Commendation Awards.

The Commendation Award recognizes outstanding service to the Company. A Commendation may be awarded for acts of service that bring distinction to the Company or to a chapter or which improve services to members. The member's work may have been a onetime contribution or continuing service over a period of time in one or more areas.

> John Thillmann - For organizing the successful 2010 annual meeting at Reston, Virginia

> Jeff Goodson - For both his past leadership as President of the Chesapeake Chapter of the Company of Military Historians and for his Chairing and having successfully conducted the 2012 Annual Meeting in Baltimore, MD April 19 through 21. We are deeply indebted to him for having salvaged a failing meeting plan and turned it into a success.

The Company of Military Historians started in 1949 to study the history and material culture of military forces which served in the Americas. The Company publishes the journal Military Collector and Historian and a series of detailed Military Uniforms in America plates. Membership is open to adults of eighteen years and over who have demonstrated a keen interest in some phase of military history. The main qualification is a strong desire to share one's knowledge and expertise. The Company is controlled and managed by a Board of Governors of nine members, elected by the entire membership. The Company is recognized as a not-for-profit organization.
